Business Process Model 3: Death Registration

citizen

start

Relative or hospital provides death details to the Civil Registration System.(Includes personal details, date, and place of death.)

Death certificate is issued to the relative or requester.

Requester receives the physical or digital copy of the certificate.

end

civil registration

Registrar verifies the death details.

Registrar reviews the submitted information deny pass

Verified data is stored in the Government Database.

A unique death certificate number is generated.

Issue Death Certificate

Health Department

Confirms with hospital records and any legal considerations.